Dear 1st Grade Families,

This letter is to provide information about what to expect when a remote learning day is called due to a weather emergency.

Ms. Koch's class will complete the packet that was sent home in the "Virtual Learning Day" folder. If the folder has been lost or misplaced, please visit our website and click on the remote learning day tab to view additional materials.

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS:

Teachers will be available for two 45 minute sessions. One session will be held in the morning from 9:00 – 9:45 am. The second session will be held in the afternoon from 1:00 – 1:45 pm. Students will be required to join both sessions to receive credit for attending school that day.

Students can join the work session by computer or phone at the following link:
<https://meet.google.com/omv-zfkr-gco>

Or dial:

Attendance is taken based on students logging in or phoning in.

Work is being graded just as if they were in-person.

Parent Expectations:

Assist your child with logging on or phoning into class.

Check our website if you need information.

Help your child, but do not complete the work for them.

If you have any issues with technology, email the teacher at: jkoch@mhtigers.org

Let's all hope for an early Spring.

Martin Luther King, Jr.

Martin Luther King, Jr. was born in Georgia in 1929. At that time, whites and people of color were segregated. Martin's father taught him to always demand respect.

Martin was a great speaker and very smart. He won a big speech contest in high school. He was 15 years old when he finished high school in 1944. He went to Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia.

In 1948, Martin became a minister. He worked very hard to change segregation laws by giving speeches and leading marches. He told people not to fight and explained ways to change the laws in peaceful ways.

Sometimes, Martin went to jail for his ideas. Despite any consequences from his speeches, he never gave up. In 1963, he gave his famous speech, "I Have a Dream" in Washington D.C. In 1964, he won the Nobel Peace Prize.

In 1964, the Civil Rights Act became law. People of color had equal rights. Martin had great influence.

In 1968, Martin was killed.

Civil Rights: The rights that all people have to freedom and to be treated equally.

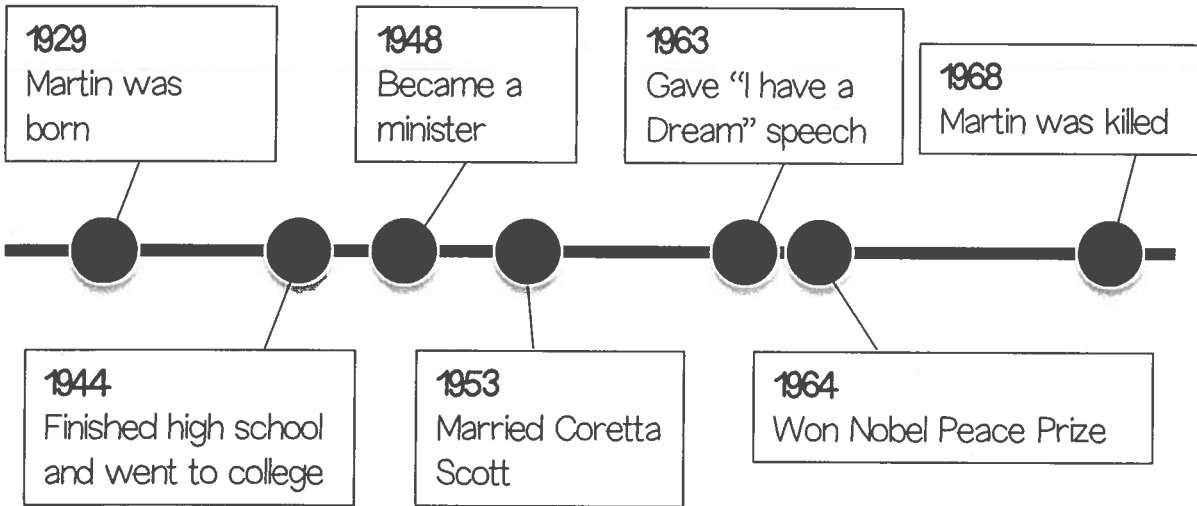

Segregated: Divided or separated by skin color.

Minister: The leader of a Christian church group.
